Description

Description:	ISTRIA, SVETINČENAT Stone house for renovation with project Svetinčenat is a small town in Istria located in the southwestern part of Istria, just a few kilometers from the sea. Right in Svetinčenat, surrounded by beautiful nature and a few holiday homes, this stone house for adaptation is located and is looking for a new owner. It is only a 10-20 minute drive from Pula, while in the surrounding area there are various family farms where you can enjoy local products. This stone house extends over 172m2 and is surrounded by 377m2 of construction land. The access is asphalted and there is water on the plot, while electricity is right next door. The whole house needs to be renovated, the roof and mezzanine construction. The walls are stable. If it is reconstructed and a swimming pool and accompanying facilities are added, the house is ideal for tourism business in the
