other interesting details while walking around the town. Not far from Labin is Plomin, a beautiful town with a view of the sea. This house full of potential is for sale in Plomin. It is a free-standing house with a total area of about 300 m², which extends its area through three floors - ground floor, first floor and second floor, making a total of 3 apartments! The first apartment is located on the ground floor, which is furnished and ready for living. On the first floor, there is another apartment that is in the renovation phase. On the second floor, there is a third apartment that is in the demolition phase, also ready for renovation. All 3 apartments have their own entrances so that they function as separate units, which gives the future owner the possibility of living and simultaneously using the other two apartments for the purpose of tourist rental. There is enough space on the garden to build a swimming pool in the future. An exceptional investment opportunity!
