Description

Description: Istria, Buzet Stone house with a panoramic view of Motovun! This stone terraced house stands on a hill just 10 minutes' drive from Motovun. An asphalted road leads to the house itself. The house actually consists of 2 parts that are exclusively sold together. The smaller house consists of a ground floor and 2 floors with an approximate floor plan of 60m². The area of the larger house is approximately 90m², and in front of it there is another 130m² of construction land, ideal for arranging a garden, swimming pool and outdoor kitchen as desired. It is possible to combine them and get one larger unit or arrange them as 2 separate houses with a shared swimming pool and sunbathing area - according to the wishes of the future owner! In 2012, the roof was renovated, concrete slabs were made and the house was completely grouted. This stone house is for sale in the raw stage and with its location and beautiful panoramic view of Lake Butoniga and Motovun it offers a unique opportunity on the market. ID CODE: 1020-55
