Description

Description:	ISTRIA, UMAG - Stone beauty 1st row to the sea Umag is a city on the west coast of Istria with a Mediterranean climate, and along its 45 km of coastline it offers the best introduction to a different experience of the Mediterranean. The history of this city is very interesting. Roman nobles discovered it and decided to appropriate it as a summer residence. The splendor of those times is reflected even today in the Venetian houses of the old city center. The development of tourism is directly related to the development of agriculture - the fertile soil is particularly suitable for the cultivation of olives, tomatoes and vines, as well as other crops characteristic of the Mediterranean climate. And when it comes to the gastronomic offer, there are excellent seafood and meat specialties and local Istrian cuisine. Umag has also been declared the European City of Sports and is traditionally the host of many sports events at the world level, of which the ATP Croatia Open tennis tournament should definitely be singled out. Right in this Istrian town, on a plot with a total area of 791 m² right next to the sea, this beautiful stone house is located. The house was built way back in 1890 and has since been completely reconstructed, but it has kept its original stone facade. The house extends through the ground floor and two floors. On the ground floor there are two apartments of 32.08 m² and 44.08 m². The apartments consist of a kitchen with a living room, a bedroom and a bathroom. The third, largest apartment, with a total area of 109.04 m², extends through the 1st and 2nd floors. The apartment consists of a spacious living room and a bedroom with access to the terrace, a kitchen, a bathroom and a hallway that leads to the 2nd floor via an internal staircase, where there is another living room and a bedroom. All apartments in the house have a unique, open view of the sea and the marina. The exclusive location of this house, which is rare on the market, makes it attractive and desirable. This house represents a unique opportunity to live near all facilities as well as a safe financial investment for tourist purposes. OPPORTUNITY!!!
