Description

Description: ISTRIA, UMAG - Terraced house near the sea Umag is a town on the west coast of Istria with a Mediterranean climate, and through 45 km of coastline gives the best introduction to a different experience of the Mediterranean. The history of this city is very interesting. It was discovered by Roman nobles and decided to appropriate it as a summer residence. The splendor of those times is reflected even today in the Venetian houses of the old town. The development of tourism is directly related to the development of agriculture - fertile soil is particularly suitable for growing olives, tomatoes and vines and other crops characteristic of the Mediterranean climate. And when it comes to gastronomic offer, there are excellent seafood and meat specialties and local Istrian cuisine. Umag has also been declared the European City of Sports and is traditionally the host of many sporting events around the world, of which the ATP Croatia Open tennis tournament should certainly be singled out. In the vicinity of Umag in a quiet village begins construction of three terraced houses 500 m from the sea and beaches. House 3 - has a total living area of 81 m² and consists of a ground floor with a hallway, two bedrooms and a bathroom. Internal stairs lead to the first floor where there is a kitchen with dining area and living room from which you go to the roof terrace of 42 m² with a sea view. The house has a garden of 80 m² and two parking spaces. With its location, this house represents an excellent opportunity for financial investment and renting for tourist purposes, as well as for a quiet family life outside the city center, and yet close to all amenities.
