Description

Description:

ISTRIA, MEDULIN - Rarity on the market! Right next to the beach! Once a small fishing village, and today known for its significant tourist offer, sandy beaches have become an unavoidable place for many tourists and domestic guests. Today, Medulin is one of the most important tourist locations in the vicinity of Pula, where a large number of tourists from different parts of the world prefer to spend their holidays. This beautiful villa is located by the sea and only 500 meters from the center of Medulin and only a few minutes walk from the most famous Medulin beach Bijece. It consists of eight unique apartments and has a spacious garden of 3000m² which houses two outdoor pools, sun deck for apartment guests, covered seating and socializing area, beautiful palm trees, fountain and benches to enjoy with a glass of Istrian wine on warm summer evenings . The villa also has its own private parking. If you want to do tourism, this is a great property for you because of its location and the already well-established business of renting apartments that can function as a family facility, and you can also rent apartments or make a hostel.
