Description

Description:

ISTRIA, SVETVINČENAT - Modern new building with pool In the center of the southern part of Istria, halfway between Pazin and Pula, near the road connecting the interior of Istria with the south of the peninsula, lies the old town of Svetvincenat, with its medieval castle, churches and bell tower. This town exudes a special charm. Svetvincenat and its surroundings are known not only for their historical and cultural heritage and real wealth at folklore and art events, but also for their recreational opportunities - numerous recreational bike and hiking trails, rich flora and fauna, excellent wines and unique Istrian cuisine. In the area of the Municipality of Svetvinčenat for sale is a modern new building with a swimming pool. Villa of 200m² consists of living space on the ground floor and four bedrooms with private bathrooms and a terrace upstairs. It is equipped with modern heating and cooling systems and uses the highest quality materials and equipment. The villa has a modern character with a flat roof and large openings that enrich the space with a handful of daylight and connect it with the beautiful surroundings and nature of central Istria. In the garden with automatic irrigation there is a salt water pool of 40m² with sun deck, summer kitchen and parking spaces. The completion of the construction of this modern villa under construction is planned for the end of 2022 and is being sold on a turnkey basis with a landscaped garden. This villa is the perfect place for rest and relaxation or family life. OPPORTUNITY!!! Dear clients, the agency commission is charged in accordance with the General Terms and Conditions
