Description

Description:	Begovo Razdolje is located in Gorski kotar, in the Municipality of Mrkopalj. Begovo Razdolje is the only inhabited place in Croatia above a thousand meters (1078 m), and is located on the western slopes of Bjelolasica. The fact that it is the highest settlement in Croatia with the most snowfall, a fully preserved natural environment, is a great starting point for designing a modern tourist offer. Good road connections, excellent infrastructure (electricity, water supply, telephone), and the proximity of Rijeka and Zagreb, especially after the completion of the highway, are the next comparative advantages of Begovo Razdolje. Geographical advantages are certainly the most significant and give this place recognizability, but in addition to them in Begovo Razdolje preserved architectural heritage in its original form and other socio-cultural features, such as indigenous dialects and traditional home crafts. The combination of all these factors gives Beg's Razdolje a magical attraction and presents it as a significant tourist potential in Croatia. In the last few years, Begovo Razdolje is starting to profile itself as a tourist destination. The resort has good conditions for the development of mountain tourism, and offers ideal opportunities for rural tourism and active holidays: cycling, hiking and mountaineering, hiking, hunting, skiing and cross-country skiing, camping and orienteering and mushrooming. Villa for sale in a quiet and attractive location with pool and sauna with a total area of 300 m². It is built on 3 floors, each of which is
