Description

Description: Newly offered, semi-detached house in Vodice 800 m from the sea. The property consists of a ground floor and an upper floor and a garden where there will be a swimming pool. On the ground floor there is one bedroom with a bathroom, kitchen, dining room and living room, while on the first floor there is a master bedroom and two more bedrooms, a storage room and a bathroom. Currently, the building permit is pending and the planned start of construction is in September of this year, while the planned occupancy is a year from the start of construction. It is done according to the turnkey system, with the fact that the future owner is given a choice of ceramics or parquet and a custom-made kitchen from our partner. The property itself will be equipped with underfloor heating and air conditioning. Take the opportunity and reserve for yourself this object full of potential for tourist rental or for enjoying hot summer days in one of the most visited cities in Dalmatia
