Description

Description: Istria, Vodnjan, surroundings, not far from Vodnjan, only about seven kilometers, there is a less quiet place where we are selling this house with a large garden. The house is surrounded by greenery and only a few other houses. The first beaches and the sea are about 10 km away, while Fažana is about 15 km away. This house is an autochthonous Istrian building, and apart from the living space, it also includes a former stable and a workshop. The living space of the house consists of a kitchen, a bathroom, two rooms on the ground floor, while there are three bedrooms on the first floor. The house has a spacious garden of 1640m². This property has great potential if it were to be renovated either for tourist rental or for living. The specialty is certainly this large garden, which is entirely located in the construction zone.
