Description

Description: Istria, Rovinj, surroundings In a small town not far from Rovinj, there is this stone house in the old part of the town, which is increasingly recognized as a tourist destination. The house is located in a quiet street, but at the same time, it is a step away from all the amenities that are necessary for living and enjoying this small place. The house extends over three floors, ground floor and two floors. On the ground floor there is a kitchen with a dining room, a living room and a bathroom, while on the first floor there are two spacious bedrooms. On the second floor, which together with the attic has a height of over 4.5 m, two bedrooms or some other room can be built, it all depends on the wishes and possibilities of the future owner. As a partial renovation of that second floor is required, with a little imagination you can get an ideal property for living, as well as for tourist rental due to the increasing demand for tourist facilities in the summer months.
