Description

Description:	Istria, Rovinj, surroundings The town of Rovinj is best known for its tourist offer and for the beautiful beaches it is surrounded by. Not far from the city, there is a small place where this land has found its place under the sun. In its surroundings, it has all the facilities necessary for life, such as shops, pharmacies, schools and kindergartens, and the like, while Rovinj is only a few minutes' drive away. The land, which covers 2770 m², has all the infrastructure up to the plot. The purpose of the land is commercial and residential, and the access to the land is paved. As the place where it is located is increasingly recognized for offering peace to its residents, this land is ideal for investment and construction of a family home, residential building or a combination of residential units with business premises. The choice is up to the future owner, and the possibilities are numerous. ID CODE: 1029-100
--------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------
