Description

Description: Labin, surroundings, house in a quiet location House for sale near Labin and the tourist center of Rabac, in a small, quiet village. The house is in a row, spread over three floors. It is ready to move in, but the interior needs renovation. It is even possible to make, given the size of the house and two apartments. The house has water and electricity, wood heating, and the roof has been completely renovated. Across the house there is a garage and a garden. The environment is quiet, there are family houses in the area. Given its location, it is an ideal property for a quiet family life or for tourism. At the customer's request, it is possible to buy a smaller ruin for an additional 50,000 euros, which is located near the house. ID CODE: 2001-400
