Description

Description: A plot not far from the main street in a populated part of the village surrounded by houses. Peaceful, quiet, yet close to the main street and the center of the village. Surduk, a village with about 4,000 inhabitants, has an elementary school, a local office, an Orthodox church, a cultural center, grocery stores, swimming pools known far and wide as Horizon, and for a short time the luxurious complex "Danube Heights". The plot is unencumbered and its dimensions are 26m to the street and 80m in depth. The big advantage of the plot is the access to two streets from the front and from the back, so it is possible to split the plot into two parts. The proximity to the river is another plus, why build a house right here. Agency commission 1000 euros
