Description

Description:	ISTRIA, LABIN - Istrian house for adaptation In the eastern part of Istria, only three kilometers from the sea, lies the medieval town of Labin, a city of rich history and cultural heritage, today a city of galleries and artists who create and live here all year round. The main town square will delight you with its excellently preserved loggia from the 16th century, from which the main town gate of St. Flora. Above the door are carved the coat of arms of Labin and the Venetian lion, a symbol of the rule of Venice. You will discover a cannon from the Austrian period and a number of other interesting details while walking around the town. Not far from the town of Labin, an Istrian stone house is for sale, located at the end of a row. The property needs a complete renovation of the interior. A new roof was

built on the property. As mentioned, the house, located last in the row, has a floor plan area of 69m² and is spread over two floors, which gives it 138m² of living space. On the ground floor of the house there is a tavern and a storage room. The external stairs lead to the first floor of the house, where there are three larger rooms. The yard of the house has an area of 420m². The access road is paved. Neat ownership. No burden. The distance to the sea is 9.4 km, that is, a 10-minute drive will take you to beautiful beaches and crystal clear sea. The town of Labin is 5 km away. Certainly a nice property for a nice family life, but also suitable as an investment in the form of tourism. Dear clients, the agency commission is charged in accordance with the General Terms and Conditions
