Description

Description: Fužine - a unique wooden house in the design phase! We mediate the sale of a unique house in the design phase, which allows the buyer to participate in the selection of materials, as well as the appearance itself. The house will be located on a plot (it has a building permit) of 500 m², it will have two floors - ground floor and attic. The construction will be made of wooden spruce logs. On the ground floor there would be a large living area with a kitchen, one room, a bathroom and a storage room, and on the first floor two more bedrooms and a bathroom. There is also a sauna on the ground floor. The picture is illustrative.
