Description

Description:	ISTRIA, PULA New construction in the city center! The historical center of Pula or the Old Town of Pula forms a protected urban complex that includes the southernmost city core of Pula, i.e. the area of the central city hill of Kaštela. The boundaries of the historical center coincide with the city boundaries until the middle of the 19th century and include the area within the former city walls. In the Register of Cultural Monuments, the area covered is somewhat wider and includes the area bounded by the following streets: Riva, Flaciusova, Dobrilina and Laginja Streets, Portarat, Giardini, Istarska Street, Nimfeja, Flavijejska Street, and Old Statute Street. Right in the center of the city is this smaller building with only 5 residential units. It is only 400m away from the city market, it is in a frequented
