Description

Description: Istria Zamask construction site with a sensational view! This exceptionally interesting plot with a sensational view of Motovun and the surrounding Istrian hills is located in the central part of Istria, surrounded by Motovun, Buzet, Grožnjan, and Pazin. A very attractive location, with gentle terrain and a regular but elongated shape, extends over 3050 m², of which approximately 1400 m² is designated for construction. The main water supply passes along the edge of the plot, as does the power supply, so this plot has no issues with utilities. With its view of the surrounding hills, this property captured our hearts at first sight, and we consider it a great potential for all hedonists and lovers of this beautiful part of Istria. It has our highest recommendation! ID CODE: 561
