Description

Description: Istria, we are facilitating the sale of an exceptionally beautiful piece of land with a sensational view of Motovun. The land is located in an attractive region between Motovun and Novigrad, covering 10,000 m², of which 1400 m² are designated as construction land in the T2 zone. All utilities are located 50 meters from the plot, and the land has a gently sloping configuration with an asphalt access road. This extremely tranquil area, disturbed only by the chirping of birds, will undoubtedly attract buyers seeking peace with beautiful green vistas surrounding this attractive plot. A fairytale property with a fascinating view of Motovun that is worth experiencing in person, as photos cannot capture even a small part of the impression the property leaves on every visitor. Given the perfect view, attractive location, and size of the land, we consider this property ideal for building a grand vacation villa or for tourist rentals, and it has our highest recommendation!
