Description

Description:	Agricultural land in Muntić, with a surface area of 1971 m², is attractive due to its rectangular shape, which enables simple planning and utilization of space. The plot has an access road, which facilitates the arrival and transport of materials or products. The land is properly owned and free of encumbrances, which means that there are no legal disputes or financial obligations related to the plot, which ensures security when buying. It is located 1000 meters from the center of the town, which enables proximity to all necessary facilities and services, but at the same time ensures peace and privacy. This plot offers ideal conditions for various agricultural projects or investments.
