Description

Description:	Barban is a beautiful historic town located in eastern Istria, only 20 kilometers from the largest city in Istria Pula and only 12 km from Labin. Known for the knightly game Race to the Ring, which is traditionally held in August, continuously since 1976, and has its roots in 1696. Barban is also known for the festival of figs and fig trees and other smaller events that have developed in the last ten years since the rapid development of rural tourism. Barban is also proud of its well-preserved Baroque and Gothic architectural buildings, frescoes and Glagolitic inscriptions. It is a place where more and more stone and modern villas are being built in recent times, and it is characterized by many beautiful lookouts for all sides. This charming traditional stone villa is located near Barban. It has been restored with quality materials with many styles and many original elements have been preserved. The villa has two floors. The ground floor has a living room, kitchen, dining room and bathroom. Upstairs are three bedrooms and a bathroom. All bedrooms are comfortable and air conditioned. The villa has underfloor heating, photo voltage and LED lighting. This villa is adorned with the eco-certificate of the Istrian County. The kitchen opens onto a covered terrace with barbecue. The stone walls that enclose the yard ensure complete privacy. In the yard there is a swimming pool of 24 m². The villa is located on the edge of the village in a relaxed, natural environment as such, ideal for family life, rest and relaxation. ID CODE: 30674
