Description

Description: Plomin is a small old village in the municipality of Kršan, on the southeastern coast of Istria, near the town of Labin. Plomin's Vidikovac offers a view of the entire Kvarner Bay and the islands of Cres and Lošinj, so Plomin is a suitable tourist destination as a long-lived town, on whose streets traces of the past are still alive. For sale is a detached house overlooking the old town of Plomin with a total area of about 300 m², which extends over three floors - ground floor, first floor and second floor. On the ground floor is the first apartment that has been adapted and is ready to move into. On the first floor there is apartment No. 2, which is currently in the renovation phase, while on the second floor there is apartment No. 3, which is in the demolition phase. All 3 apartments have their own entrances so they function as separate units. The yard offers enough space to build a swimming pool if necessary. Great opportunity for a tourist investment!
