Description

Description:	HOUSES IN THIS LOCATION ARE RARE ON THE MARKET Do not miss an excellent opportunity to buy a house in an extraordinary location, right in the center of town. Properties like this almost always become a great source of income after renovation. The antique for renovation in Vrsar is a terraced house located in a small fishing town with a long history and developed tourism. The house has a total area of 165 m², distributed over the ground floor and 2 upper floors. The ground floor of the house has an area of 70 m² and is the entrance area. This floor can be ideal for living room, kitchen, dining room or other common rooms. It also offers the possibility to open to the yard and terrace, which enables natural lighting and connection with the outside space. The first and second floors of the house are 45m² each, and can be adapted to accommodate bedrooms, bathrooms or other rooms depending on wishes and needs. Since the house is located in a fishing town with a long history, the properties often retain the charm of traditional architecture with characteristic elements such as wooden beams, stone walls or rustic details. The house also has a terrace of 30 m² and a yard of 25 m². The terrace is a space for enjoying the outdoors, either for relaxing or spending time with family and

friends. The house offers a unique opportunity to create a home with traditional charm near the coast of the Adriatic Sea, and has the opportunity to become a great property that will always be a great rental. Its history and proximity to tourist attractions make it an attractive option for those who want to enjoy an authentic Mediterranean experience.
