Description

Description:	ISTRIA, RABAC - House with a sea view On the southeast coast of Istria, where the green hills meet the sea, where nature and heritage come together, there are two towns of similar size but with different but mutually complementary characters - Labin and Rabac, just five kilometers apart. Rabac, due to its white pebble beaches, rich Mediterranean vegetation and crystal clear sea, has been called the pearl of Kvarner. Once a small fishing village, today Rabac is an attractive tourist destination that hides a wealth of cultural events in a network of colorful streets. The green surroundings of Rabac and the picturesque hinterland invite you to adventure, research and recreation throughout the year. In the vicinity of Rabac and Labin, near the fortified town above the blue-green bay that overlooks the entire Kvarner, a house with a sea view is for sale. It is located on the edge of a village that offers an authentic experience of a small Istrian town, intimacy and a break from the noise, and an open view of the endless Adriatic Sea and islands. The house extends over two floors; basement and ground floor and consists of living room, kitchen, two bedrooms, bathroom and terrace. The property requires renovation in order to optimize its potential and represents an excellent opportunity as an investment for tourist rental and/or housing.
