Description

Description: Istria, Labin, a large secluded property. We are selling a large Istrian estate consisting of 3 stone houses and 82,245 square meters of land. The property is located in a small settlement near the town of Labin, isolated and immersed in the natural landscape of Istria. The property represents an investment opportunity for an investor who is looking for real estate that offers potential for the construction of tourist facilities combined with an agricultural economy. Most of the land is represented by agricultural plots, former vineyards and olive groves located in the immediate vicinity of the property. Part of the land that is next to the houses has an area of 2,000 square meters and is entirely for construction, which allows the construction of additional buildings. ID CODE: 2000-1121
