Description

Description: Discover the charm of island living with these two completely rebuilt stone houses in the picturesque village of Svirče. Together, they offer a combined living space of 190 square meters, blending traditional architecture with modern comforts. Set on a generous 600 square meter yard, this property provides ample outdoor space for relaxation and recreation. The highlights include a stone-dug pool next to the luxurious sauna, perfect for unwinding in privacy as well as a stone court connecting the two houses. Additional features include two convenient parking spaces, ensuring easy access and ample parking for residents and guests.
