Description

Description:	Istria, Rovinj - Villa with a large garden On the road Rovinj - Kanfanar, only 5-6 km away from Rovinj, is the village of Rovinjsko Selo, whose hills offer a wonderful view of the city of Rovinj and the Rovinj archipelago. Today, Selo only in name because it is constantly developing and is becoming a suburb of Rovinj. About 400 houses have been built in the past on an area of about one square kilometer. The older ones are grouped in several locations (Rudelići, Čupići, Morovi, Vičani - bearing the names of the families who lived there decades ago) and which represent a beautiful example of rural architecture from the 19th and early 20th centuries, almost all adapted today. The old houses are beautiful one-story or one-story stone buildings, with a baladura and a barn, and a yard surrounded by a brick fence, inside which you can find some hundred-year-old bread ovens. Newly built houses are incorporated within the old cores or on the outskirts of the settlement. They are connected by alleys, on the left and right side of the main village road, which continue to the fields surrounded by dry stone walls. This beautiful villa is located not far from the town of Rovinj. The special feature of this location is that it is located in nature in a quiet part of the village, and in just a few minutes you can be in Rovinj or on beautiful beaches. The interesting floor plan of this villa uniquely fits into the landscape and nature of the 550m gross area. It is conceptually divided into two units, residential and business with a total of 10 rooms. Due to the sale in the raw stage, the purpose of the premises is subject to change according to personal preferences. On the first floor, there is space for two bedrooms with their own bathrooms and access to a beautiful terrace with a wonderful view. This house is a great investment for tourism considering the location or as a family home in an idyllic setting.
