Description

Description: Istria, Rovinj, surroundings Rovinj is a beautiful city located on the west coast of Istria, and is known for its rich history and beautiful old town center with stone streets that attracts a large number of tourists from all over the world. Its picturesque coast, Mediterranean architecture and cultural heritage make it a popular destination for tourists, but just a few minutes drive from the hustle and bustle of the city, there is this beautiful and spacious plot of land. The land is agricultural, size 8708m², while there is also a plot of land of 28m². It is divided into several smaller plots of 900-1100m², thus offering potential buyers the option to choose one or more plots, depending on their needs. The building was demolished, so the construction of the future building was left to the new owner. This type of real estate is especially attractive for those who love nature, relaxation and escape from the hectic pace of life. The distance from pristine beaches is 2.5 km, which is a definite advantage for all those looking for a place for a holiday home. ID CODE: 1018-1279
