Description

Description: Plomin is one of the oldest Istrian settlements, surrounded by medieval ramparts dating back to the 13th and 14th centuries. It is located at the foot of Plominska Gora, at an elevation of 168 m above Plominska Bay. On one side, the view reaches the entire Kvarner Bay and on the other, towards the Istrian mainland. Plomin is becoming more and more attractive and recognizable in terms of tourism. A newly renovated house with a fantastic view of the sea is offered for sale near Plomin. The detached house with a comfortable layout has a completely separate living area, "open space" kitchen, dining room and living room, two bedrooms with a bathroom. The rooms open onto a large terrace, and the living room has exits to the balcony that extends along the entire southern side of the house. The house was completely renovated last year, all rooms are air-conditioned. The spaciousness of the garden makes it possible to build a swimming pool with a sunbathing area or some other additional content that would contribute to the attractiveness of this property. The house is located in a very good position, surrounded by peace and quiet, a real oasis of privacy, yet only a few kilometers from the beach and other amenities ID CODE: 8651
