Description

Description:	Bribir, in a small town only 5 km away from the first beaches of the Crikvenica Riviera, a luxury stone villa of rustic style and quality construction is for sale. The villa of newer construction, in a unique combination of nature and tradition, was built in 2012, but in the spirit of coastal stone houses. During the construction, decoration and furnishing, every detail was taken care of and only quality materials were used. It is equipped with solar panels, air conditioning in each room, and a fireplace in the living room. The exterior carpentry is made of larch and is perfectly integrated into the stone with which the house is dressed. The living area is located on the ground floor, is an open concept, and consists of a kitchen, dining room and living room. There is also a sauna and a bathroom. Of a total of seven very charming bedrooms with private bathrooms, five are located on the first floor, one is on the ground floor with its own entrance and another in a separate building on the plot. On the roof of the building there is an intimate sun deck, overlooking the greenery of the surrounding forests. In the landscaped
