Description

Description:	ISTRIA, LABIN (surroundings) - Two stone houses with a view of nature On the southeastern coast of Istria, at the place where green hills meet the sea, where nature and heritage come together, there are two towns of similar size, but with different but mutually complementary characters - Labin and Rabac. The picturesque town of Labin rises on a hill 320 m high, only five kilometers from the white pebble beaches in Rabac. Intertwined with rich history and mining that marked this region, Labin, which was declared an independent republic for a short time, is today a fascinating city of contradictions; old and new, history and present, tourism and art. In the vicinity of the town of Labin, two stone houses with a total living area of 144 m² are for sale. One house has a floor plan area of 43 m², the other 101 m², extending through the ground floor, first floor and high attic. They are surrounded by a small garden, and access is from the public country road. The houses offer a wonderful view of nature. Dear clients, the agency commission is charged in accordance with the General Terms and Conditions:
