Description

Description: Plomin, located on the east coast of Istria, exudes medieval charm and a rich historical heritage. This picturesque place is known for its narrow stone streets, old buildings and impressive views of the Kvarner Bay. The eastern Istrian coast of the Plomin region stands out for its crystal-clear sea, hidden bays and lush Mediterranean vegetation, providing an ideal combination of natural beauty and cultural heritage. This region, with its enchanting landscapes and historical sights, is the perfect destination for those looking for peace and an authentic Istrian experience. For sale is a plot of land of 547 m² located in a quiet place, ideal for building a family house or cottage. The land offers a stunning view of the sea, Kvarner Bay and nearby islands, providing a feeling of peace and connection with nature. The location is perfect for those who want to enjoy silence and privacy, while at the same time being close enough to all necessary amenities. This land represents an extraordinary opportunity to invest in real estate that offers not only beautiful views, but also the possibility of building a dream villa in one of the most beautiful parts of Istria.
