Description

Description: Krk- Dobrinj - autochthonous house with sea view Autochthonous house 115 m2, located in the very core of Dobrinj. It consists of an entrance hall on the ground floor that leads to the kitchen and living room, and to the basement where there is a bathroom and a separate toilet. The staircase leads to the 1st floor, where there are two bedrooms and a corridor from which a spiral staircase leads to an uncovered terrace that stretches across the entire surface of the house with a view of the sea and Meline beach, which is known for its healing mud. The terrace is partly surrounded by a wall and partly by a forged fence. On the outside of the house is the entrance to the tavern/cellar. On the eastern side of the island of Krk is the municipality of Dobrinj with the center of the same name. Dobrinj is located on a hill about 200 meters high and is one of the medieval castles that were centers of literacy in the past. For centuries, Dobrinjština was an extremely agricultural region. Animal husbandry and olive growing, as well as the exploitation of forest resources, were also represented. The place is also known for its colorful folk costumes, folklore events, sopela school (Krk's wind instrument) and traditional local cuisine. In this island center, autochthonous stone houses and narrow stone streets that are reminiscent of the past prevail. Not far from Dobrinje is the Biserujka cave, which delights with its beauty and interesting precipitated forms. It is the only cave on the island, of which there are more than 50, designed to receive visitors. According to legend, the cave was named Biserujka (pearl) after the treasure found in it, which belonged to local pirates. Dear clients, the agency
