Description

Description: In the protected area of the Nature Park Žumberak-Samoborsko gorje, around twenty kilometers from the City of Samobor, we are selling a large property with a fairytale wooden house. This wooden house that lies on a plot of approximately 7,000 sqm, was designed as a ground-story facility with an attic. The layout surface of the house is 72 sqm and it consists of entrance hall, kitchen, bathroom, living room, bedroom, and terrace. The house has connection to the public water supply network, and the electricity supply is solved by its own photovoltaic system. Every detail was taken into account in the decoration. The house is decorated and maintained with a lot of love and care, and it is situated in the bottom part of the plot, hidden from views by centuries-old oaks. The house was designed as escape from modern life's hustle and bustle into the nature, and it also gives the opportunity to earn money through daily rental. Many travelers through our region could not resist its beauty and stopped for a few days in this fairytale environment. If you are looking for a romantic house in a pure natural environment near the city, either for your own vacation or for business - daily rental, then this is the ideal opportunity for you.
