Description

Description:	ISTRIA, LABIN - Stone house with project and permit On the southeastern coast of Istria, at the place where green hills meet the sea, where nature and heritage come together, there are two towns of similar size, but with different but mutually complementary characters - Labin and Rabac. The picturesque town of Labin rises on a hill 320 m high, only five kilometers from the white pebble beaches in Rabac. Intertwined with rich history and mining that marked this region, Labin, which was declared an independent republic for a short time, is today a fascinating city of contradictions; old and new, history and present, tourism and art. In the vicinity of the town of Labin, there is a stone house for sale with a project and a permit. On a small but just large plot of land, there is a house with a floor plan of 169 m², which is divided into two floors; ground floor and first floor and auxiliary building of 12 m². The buildings need complete renovation and have a project drawn up and a building permit for reconstruction obtained. It was conceived as a perfect combination of traditional and modern with a fenced yard in a Mediterranean style, which contains a swimming pool with a sun deck and a summer kitchen. The combination of lush greenery and traditional Istrian architecture makes this property ideal for lovers of stone antiquities and nature with great potential for a peaceful family life or a lucrative rental business.
