Description

Description: Poreč area, autochthonous Istrian house with garden for adaptation! This autochthonous Istrian stone house for adaptation is located in a quiet place where there are only a few houses. The place is a very specific Istrian place. The house has a view of the surrounding nature and the sea. Its total size was 72 m² and it needs to be completely adapted. The yard has 600m². The yard is fenced with drywall, which also needs to be rearranged. All necessary infrastructure will be brought to the field itself. All the necessities of life, such as a school, kindergarten, post office, shop, restaurants, nature walks, are located near the village. This property is an ideal investment for the adaptation of a house into a villa with a swimming pool in a quiet location! ID CODE: 1031-483
