Description

Description: VIŽINADA, renovated Istrian stone house. On the western part of the Istrian peninsula, in the vicinity of Poreč, Višnjan and Vižinada, there is for sale a superbly completely renovated autochthonous Istrian stone house. In a quiet location, surrounded by a picturesque Istrian village, olive groves and vineyards and only 16 km from the sea, this property offers ideal conditions for vacation, housing or tourist rental. The famous bicycle path (Parenzana), numerous taverns, famous wineries and olive oil producers, beautiful landscapes and the proximity of the Slovenian border and, of course, well-known tourist centers on the sea, certainly guarantee interest on the tourist market. The house was completely renovated in 2023 - roof, electricity, water, everything new, old beams sandblasted, stone cleaned outside and inside, old sheds sandblasted. The house has a use permit. It is fully furnished and equipped and ready for rent - it is categorized with 4* and the future owners can start returning the investment immediately. It consists of three floors; on the ground floor there is a kitchen and a dining area, as well as a bathroom. On the first floor there is a bedroom (it can also be a living room) and on the second floor there is another bedroom. Each floor has its own air conditioner - heating/cooling. Although small, the partially covered terrace in front of the house is enough for morning coffee or evening glass of wine. The house and garden are ideal for someone who doesn't like to mow :) Parking spaces for two vehicles are provided next to the house. There is also the option of buying approx. 400 m² of land nearby where you can put a garden house, have a garden, etc. Ownership neat 1/1. For more information and a tour, call +385/99/320-0011 ID CODE: 15025
