Description

Description: Every house has its own story, and so does this beautiful stone beauty that we offer for sale. In the immediate vicinity of Kanfanar, an autochthonous Istrian house has been renovated and turned into a small paradise that provides total comfort for a vacation. The house originally dates from 1920, but was completely reconstructed from the ground up in 2017. During the reconstruction, the autochthonous Istrian stilt was kept and elements of modernism were added to provide the comfort of modern living. The villa covers an area of 135 m² and consists of a ground floor and an upper floor. On the ground floor there is an open space concept of living room, kitchen and dining room, which achieves excellent communication and spaciousness. On the ground floor there is also a bedroom with its own bathroom. The ground floor leads to the sunbathing area and pool. Next to the 32 m² swimming pool is a fully equipped summer kitchen that allows you to spend time with family and friends. The pool is solar heated with salt water and new quality devices for electrolysis, On the first floor of the villa, there are two bedrooms with their own bathrooms and access to the terrace, which allows you to drink your morning coffee outdoors. Heating and cooling of the house are regulated by air conditioners, while all bathrooms have underfloor heating. The villa has a well-established tourist rental business, which offers the future owner the possibility of a quick return on investment. If you want to own a beautiful property in Istria that has its own special story and extremely positive energy, this autochthonous house is the perfect choice.
