Description

Description: The building is located at the beginning of Gospodara Vučića Street, next to the > bus interchange. It is divided into a residential and a business part. The office space is located in the business part of the building. It consists of a large main room, a toilet (which is in a large room), a spacious room for receiving clients or business partners, a kitchen (next to which is another toilet), a back room that can be used as a separate office, it also has two separate terraces on different parts of the business premises. In the office space there are also three air conditioners and various cabinets for storing documents and various office materials. The space itself has a lot of sunlight because it is surrounded by windows on all sides. Unfortunately, the space does not come with a parking lot or a garage space. Agency commission is 50% of one month's rent.
