Description

Description: Nestled in the oldest part of Jelsa, this semidetached stone house offers a rare opportunity to own a piece of the town's rich history. Surrounded by charming stone houses, the property is just a peaceful 2-minute walk from the vibrant town center, yet perfectly hidden from the summer harbor noise. The house spans three floors, each with 32 square meters, all constructed with traditional stone walls that blend seamlessly into the historic old town. In the back, a private yard and garden provide the perfect space to grow your own vegetables, adding to the property's appeal. While the house requires renovation, it offers immense potential for those with a vision. With its unbeatable location, this property could be transformed into an idyllic holiday retreat or a cozy living home, combining the charm of historic Jelsa with modern comforts.
