Description

Description:	ISTRIA, BRTONIGLA - spacious building land for investment Brtonigla is a picturesque small village, located on the northwestern coast of Istria County. It is located on a hill, between the towns of Novigrad and Buje, and is surrounded by vineyards and olive groves. Brtonigla is special in that it lies on four different types of land, which at the same time represent all types of soil in Istria. Brtonigla is also said to be the city of wine, which of course tells you about the top quality of the wine, as well as the gastronomic specialties. Brtonigla offers a somewhat different vacation, full of tradition that begins in the vineyard, continues in the cellars, and ends with plenty on the table. Here it is still possible to listen to the harmonious sound of different languages, but also to the song of crickets and nightingales, to absorb the traditional values of peasants and fishermen. There you can rest your soul in the shade of centuries-old oaks and authentic stations surrounded by quiet fields over which little churches with horse-bells stand watch, or indulge in the sea atmosphere on the waterfront in nearby Karigador. A spacious building plot for investment in Brtonigla is for sale. The area of construction land is 1628 m². The purpose of the land is residential. The land has a regular shape, and all the necessary infrastructure is located in the immediate vicinity, right next to the first house. Given the interesting location, the land may be suitable for investment in the construction of a holiday home. Dear clients, the agency
