Description

Description: In Komarna, a village within the Municipality of Slivno, we are selling a well-built, decorated, maintained and ready to move-in facility with six apartments. The facility consists of basement, ground floor, first floor and residential loft. The basement consists of studio apartment, garage for 2 cars and tavern. There are two residential units on the ground floor and on the first floor, while in the loft there is one residential unit - an open space, i.e., a spacious premise with roofed terrace that offers a perfect sea view. Ground floor consists of two apartments – a three-room-apartment with two special features - a tiled stove in the living room and a beautiful, roofed terrace overlooking the sea and a two-room-apartment with another beautiful, roofed terrace overlooking the sea. On the 1st floor there are also two apartments, a three-room-apartment with centrally positioned open fireplace and a roofed terrace overlooking the sea and a two-room-apartment with exit to the garden. Each unit is equipped with air conditioning and intercom, central heating is on heating oil, and in addition to the city water supply, the building also has a hydrophore. The facility is situated in a peaceful street, not far from the sea and city beaches.
