Rijeka, Apartment with a Stunning View A spacious apartment for sale, located on the first and top floor of the building, occupying the entire floor. The apartment is situated in a highly attractive and sought-after location with a phenomenal view of the entire Kvarner Bay. A rare feature is that the apartment is oriented towards all four cardinal directions, providing plenty of natural light through large windows in every room, creating a pleasant and airy atmosphere. It consists of an entrance veranda, leading into a hallway that connects all the rooms. The kitchen is connected to the dining area and living room, creating a cozy and open space for family or gatherings. From the dining room, you enter the first room, which can be used as a bedroom or a separate living room. Both rooms have access to a loggia with a breathtaking view of the sea and Kvarner. The apartment also features two spacious bedrooms, a bathroom, and a practical storage room. The apartment is move-in ready and is sold furnished, with refurbished beds, a new boiler, air conditioning, and shutters. The rest of the furniture is classic but well-maintained and tidy, which adds to the charm and cleanliness of the space. Heating is provided through the new air conditioning unit, and there is also the possibility of installing a wood or pellet stove, as the apartment has a chimney. Additionally, a gas line is available right next to the building, allowing for the introduction of city gas. The roof of the building was renovated five years ago. The location is undoubtedly excellent. Nearby, all necessary amenities can be found, including sports facilities, and the first beaches are just a few minutes' drive away.
