Description

Description: ISTRIA, SURROUNDINGS OF LABINA - Building land in a peaceful environment The town of Labin was built on a 320-meter-high hill - the site of the Roman settlement of Albona, whose name was first mentioned in 285 AD. In the past, this jewel was known for its 400-year-old mining activity, while today it is one of the cultural and administrative centers in Istria. The charming city combines cultural and historical monuments and rich architecture during various cultural events. In a quiet and nature-surrounded area not far from Labin, two attractive building plots of regular shape are for sale. These plots represent a perfect opportunity to build a family house, a cottage or a building for tourist purposes, thanks to the ideal location and proximity to all important facilities. The land is located in a quiet neighborhood, far from the hustle and bustle of the city, yet close enough to Labin, known for its rich cultural and historical heritage and charming old city streets. The surrounding area is full of natural beauty, ideal for lovers of outdoor activities, such as cycling, hiking or exploring the pristine beaches and bays of eastern Istria. In addition to all of the above, Istria as a region offers extraordinary opportunities for relaxation, enjoyment of local gastronomy, wine, and exploration of its rich cultural and natural heritage. These lands are an ideal investment for anyone who wants to combine a quiet life in nature with proximity to urban amenities. These building plots offer the possibility to build according to your wishes and needs, whether you are looking for a private retreat or want to invest in a building project with potential. The infrastructure is nearby, which facilitates the construction process, and the location itself offers peace and privacy, while at the same time it is well connected to the major roads and main thoroughfares of the region. I am at your disposal for any additional information and/or questions! Dear clients, the agency commission is charged in accordance with the General Terms of Business
