Description

Description:	PELJESAC - EXCELLENT BUILDING LAND WITH PROJECTS, ELECTRICITY, WATER AND PAID UTILITIES Žuljana is a small picturesque town located on the southern coast of the Pelješac peninsula in Croatia. It is located between Ston and Orebić, and after the construction of the bridge to Pelješac, it is also a very easily accessible place. This place is known for its beautiful beaches, especially pebble and sandy, and crystal clear sea, which makes it an ideal destination for families, couples and nature lovers. The most famous beach in Žuljana is Vučine, which is considered one of the most beautiful on Pelješac. Just 500 meters from the beautiful coast, there is this attractive building plot that offers everything you need to realize your building ambitions. With the finished project in hand, the communal contribution paid and all the necessary connections secured, this terrain represents the perfect combination of preparedness and potential for development. The land covers an area of almost 1000 m², providing enough space for the construction of a luxurious and modern complex. According to the project, the construction of six spacious residential units is planned, with additional luxury in the form of a large swimming pool, ideal for relaxing in the summer months, and a carefully designed garden that will provide privacy and pleasure. The total net usable area of the building is approximately 700 m², which offers spacious and comfortable living spaces, both for living and for potential tourist rental. Ownership of the land is neat and clean, and all documentation is available, which allows you to start work smoothly and quickly. Without additional worries about connections or utility obligations, you are in a position to immediately start implementing the project. This land represents an ideal opportunity for investors looking for a profitable business venture, but also for those who want to create a private corner for rest and enjoyment near the Adriatic Sea. Considering all the amenities and the great location, this is an investment not to be missed! Ready to build, just waiting for your step! Contact us with confidence.
