Description

Description: Kaiser Immobilien presents a unique opportunity in the medieval core of Labina. The house consists of 87 m2 and offers 17 m2 of garden. It is located just a few steps from the city parking lot and is easily accessible. The special construction conditions, as well as the conceptual design, were completed. The project is intended for the construction of two apartments with a tavern. The property offers all the necessary infrastructure, and from the first floor there are beautiful views of the old town center and the sea. An excellent opportunity due to its location, in terms of year-round living or tourist investment. The medieval core of Labin is located on a hill above one of the most beautiful bays, Rabac. The location offers unique panoramic views of the sea and the coast with islands. Located just a few steps from the main town square, the house is in the neighborhood of numerous restaurants, cafes, galleries and all other important facilities.
