Description

Description:	The story of Opatija is fatefully linked to the small church of St. Jakov, and the church property that would later become the city of Opatija. St. Jakov is the patron saint of pilgrims and travelers, then apothecaries, tanners, farmers, fruit growers and ... Opatija. In a pleasant environment, in the most elite part of Opatija, surrounded by old Austro-Hungarian villas and villas of recent construction, right next to the sea, is the apartment that we present to you. An apartment consisting of: a studio-apartment and an apartment as two units that make up one space, located in the basement of the building. The central part of the apartment consists of a living room that is connected to the kitchen, and both rooms have an exit to a balcony of approx. 20 m² on the southeast side of the building, from which there is an open, beautiful view of the sea, Rijeka and the islands. The kitchen and the living room are connected to the corridor from which we enter the bedroom and bathroom with a toilet, the total area of the apartment is 82 m². The studio apartment has one larger room with a small kitchen and a bathroom with a toilet. Both the apartment and the apartment are connected to a large terrace on the north-eastern side of the building, from which there is an open view of the sea, and this on an area of approx. 100 m². There is also a small tavern for things and garden supplies. The environment is enriched with plants from the Mediterranean climate. All important facilities, such as shops, bus stations, coffee shops, are located within a 10-minute walk, and the center of Opatija is an easy 20-minute walk away. But if we want to take a bath, it is enough to take a few steps and find ourselves on one of the small beaches in the vicinity of the facility. The Imperial Promenade of Francis Joseph I, which stretches from Volosko to Lovran in a length of approx. 8 km, as well as the greenery of Opatija and the blue of the sea are the sights that surround us in this location. The location is about 40 minutes away by car from Krk airport, Pula about 1 hour and 30 minutes, Ljubljana about 1 hour and 30 minutes, Trieste about 1 hour and 30 minutes, Zagreb about 1 hour and 30 minutes. Istria with its gastronomic offer, Motovun, Buzet, and other places with a high gastronomic offer and developed agro-tourism are only an hour to an hour and a half away.
