"walls" were cleaned and presented as a prehistoric observation post, and they were used to inform the prehistoric Liburna tribe in the event of an attack from the sea so that other communities on hillforts such as Veprinac, Kastva, Grobnik, Tarsatika or Omišalj could prepare for danger. The aforementioned observation tower is located just a few minutes' walk from the property and offers stunning views of Kvarner and the islands. ID CODE: 112-059
