Description

Description:

Kaiser Immobilien mediates the sale of a beautiful house in an exceptional location in Mali Lošinj. It is located only 70 meters from the sea on one side, and 330 meters from the other side of the island of Lošinj. The building with a total living area of 288m² is divided into three floors, each of which separately offers a wonderful view of the sea and pine trees. On the ground floor there are two smaller apartments, each with one bedroom, a living room that includes a kitchen, living room and dining room, as well as a bathroom and a terrace. One is completely adapted and in operation, while the other is in the final stage of renovation. On the first floor there is a superbly decorated two-room apartment with a terrace facing the sea and beautiful sunsets, while on the second floor there is another apartment with an identical layout and with an even more beautiful view. The south-west orientation of these apartments gives the rooms light, warmth and airiness, and with their modern decoration they are an excellent choice through the prism of investment or a perfect place to live with the song of crickets and the smell of pine on the Mediterranean. The house was completely renovated in 2022, a complete set of new installations were made, new aluminum carpentry was installed, and a new facade, and high-quality furniture and appliances are the subject of an agreement with the current owners. On the landscaped garden of 408 m², there is a common area for socializing, where there is also a barbecue, a covered gazebo, and there is enough space to build a swimming pool, depending on wishes. There is also one parking space, and enough space to build a garage. The center of the town is 2000m away, and there is a small port for landing by boat under the house. The facility is located in a well-established tourist rental, and as such guarantees a quick return on investment. ID CODE: 105-159
