Description

Description: Kaiser Immobilien presents a beautiful rustic house in the medieval center of Brseč. The house consists of 75 m2 of living space and a studio apartment in the basement. The first floor consists of a kitchen, dining room, living room and bathroom. The space is fully furnished and excellently used. There are two bedrooms on the first floor. The master bedroom offers a beautiful view of the sea, while the utility room offers a view of the beautiful city center. The house can be heated with wood thanks to the fireplace, while during the summer cooling devices are not even needed due to the excellent location. In the basement there is a studio apartment of a total of 35 m², fully furnished. It consists of a space for socializing and living, as well as a kitchen and a bathroom. The house achieves excellent results considering the tourist season, long-time guests enjoy the charms of the coast first hand. The unique position of this property is an excellent choice for all lovers of coastal life. It is located a sandy distance from the sea and cafes and restaurants. With its natural features and romantic stone streets, Brseč combines the sea with the city. Klančac beach and the famous golf driving range are just one of the attributes of this region.
